

Yvonne Creanga, violist and violinist

Romanian-born violist Yvonne Creanga enjoys a varied career as a chamber musician, orchestral player, and teacher. She has performed at the Festival dei Due Mondi in Charleston, South Carolina and Spoleto, Italy, the Settimane Musicale Senese, Siena, Italy and the Norfolk Chamber Music Festival. Her ensembles have won prizes at the Coleman Chamber Music Competition, the Accademia Chigiana, the Conservatoire Américain, and in Bydgoszcz, Poland.

Throughout her career Yvonne has been a member of many orchestras on two continents and both coasts of the USA. She is currently a member of the Tucson Symphony Orchestra.

She has taught at Interlochen Arts Camp, The University of Arizona School of Music and at other colleges.

In 2009, to satisfy a need of adult amateur musicians, Yvonne founded Chamber Music Academy for Adults, where participants study under her guidance and perform. For more information about all her teaching and performance activities, see Yvonne's website. See also August 2010 Arizona Daily Star article.
