Nominations are now being accepted for Outstanding Studio Teacher of the Year, Outstanding School Teacher of the Year, and Distinguished Service Award for 2015. A winner in each category will be selected based on the nominations submitted.

Outstanding Studio Teacher of the Year

This award is presented to a studio teacher and member of ASTA who has made outstanding lifetime contributions to the field of string playing. The nominee must have at least 10 years of successful experience with a reputation that goes beyond their studio.

Outstanding School Teacher of the Year

This award is presented to a school teacher with at least 10 years experience and a member of ASTA who has made a significant contribution to a school orchestra or a university program, epitomizing every facet of excellence in string teaching. Teachers shall have a reputation that goes beyond their classroom, in such areas as mentoring peers, presenting sessions at conferences or for being life-long learners.

Distinguished Service Award

This award is presented to a school administrator, music supporter, or music business that has made a significant contribution to string teaching in the Greater Los Angeles Area Section for five or more years. Examples of contributions are: Initiating a string program in a school district, expanding an existing program, creating or expanding a youth orchestra program, or providing exceptional support to a program. Other examples include financial support, advocacy, chairing recital competitions or being a member of the string industry.

Nominations must be received no later than Jan 23, 2016. A list of nominees will be compiled and a ballot prepared for the next board meeting. The award recipients in each of the three categories will be notified in April and the presentation of their awards will be made in May at the Recital Competition Finals. In any year when fewer than 3 nominees are received in a category, the board may choose to reserve a nomination for the next year rather than make a non-competitive award in that year.
