2016 Annual Solo Strings Festival & Competition

Sunday, May 22nd, 2016 at San Diego State University

2016 Solo Strings Festival

The 2016 Annual Solo Strings Festival is a non-competitive event open to musicians of all ages and abilities (even for beginning players playing ‘Twinkle’)!

Eligibility:

- Participants must be players of violin, viola, cello, double bass, classical guitar, or harp.
- Teachers of participants do NOT have to be members of ASTA-SD. However, if a teacher is a member of ASTA-SD, their students are eligible for a member-discounted Festival fee!

Repertoire & Performance:

- Please choose one to two pieces from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, or 21st-Century periods. Total playing time should not exceed seven (7) minutes.
- Piano accompaniment is NOT required, but participants are welcome to use an accompanist if they wish! If accompaniment is desired, participants should try to provide their own accompanist. If none is available, ASTA can provide one if you request it on your application. The fee for an ASTA accompanist is $60.00, which should be included with your Festival fee.
- Memorization is NOT required. However, adjudicators should be provided with a full original score of each work.

Awards:

- All participants will receive a commemorative ASTA pin, a Certificate of Participation, and constructive written comments from two adjudicators.
- Select players may be invited to perform at ASTA San Diego’s 2016 Fall Recital!

Please join us in celebrating string teaching and learning in San Diego!

- The total playing time for my selected repertoire is seven (7) minutes or under.
- My teacher is a member of ASTA-SD, so I am eligible for the member-discounted ASTA Festival fee. Therefore, I have enclosed a check for $25.00 payable to San Diego ASTA.
- My teacher is NOT a member of ASTA-SD, so I am eligible for the non-member ASTA Festival fee. Therefore, I have enclosed a check for $35.00 payable to San Diego ASTA.
- Optional: Although accompaniment is NOT required, I still wish to use an accompanist. I will not bring my own accompanist, and am enclosing an additional check for $60.00 payable to San Diego ASTA for an ASTA-appointed accompanist.
