Natasha Djikanovic – Biography

The career of Miss Natasha Djikanovic started from early age of 9 when she was attracted by sacral music of the Orthodox Church in a suburban part of Belgrade -Borča, which is the place of her residence and where she began to sing in a choir. After that Natasha started to explore the music and she fall in love with opera and classical music.

Her education was an important part on her developing way. She graduated from music high school "Davorin Jenko" in Belgrade and later on from University of Arts, Faculty of Music Art in Belgrade, guided by the teacher Ljudmila Gross-Popović. When Natasha was at second year of University she became a member of The Opera studio by The National Theater in Belgrade where she also studied with Mrs. Radmila Bakočević. Working as a member of the Opera studio, where she had a great cooperation with conductor Dejan Savić and Maestro Gleb Gorbunov, Natasha had noticeable appearances as Mimi in Puccini's La Boheme several times at The National Theater's main stage and stages in Niš and Kragujevac. In 2009 Natasha got a scholarship for a program in Germany- Oper Oder Spree, Brandenburg. She performed with The Orchester der Plovdiv Opera under the guidance of Maestro Frank Zacher where she won a Gran Prix Prize. After finishing her Bachelor degree, Miss Djikanovic received the prize for the best and the most promising student of the singing department for the academic year 2009/2010 from the Faculty of Music Art Belgrade, "Danica Mastilović" Fund. Natasha continued perfecting her technique with Miss Virginia Zeani in the USA, where she had several different concerts. From 2012 she is a member of the Association of Musical Artist of Serbia. She won Republic competitions in Serbia: several first places as a soloist and in the chamber section. In 2012, she was a semi-finalist at " Gian Battista Viotti" - Vercelli (Italia ) Competition and won a Luciano Pavarotti giovani award. Also 2012 .Miss Djikanovic was a finalist at II International competition Magda Olivero in Saluzzo (Italia).

Roles on Miss Djikanovic repertoire are: Violetta Valery from La Traviata and Gilda from Rigoletto by G. Verdi, Mimi and Musetta from La Boheme by G.Puccini as well as Lucia from Donizetti's opera Lucia di Lammermoor. She perfected her repertoire with coaches: Svetlana Tirmenstajn, Srdjan Jarakovic, Eytan Pessen, Matthew Epstein and Reiner Armbrust. Miss Djikanovic had many different concerts in Serbia, Germany, Austria and the USA, appearances With
