

ASTA Sacramento Section 2017 Solo Competition Report

Congratulations to all of the participants who competed at the annual Sacramento Section ASTA solo competition held on Sunday, May 21 at UC Davis.

There were five winners and two honorable mentions.

The winners were as follows:

Violin

Amaryn Olmeda (winner, novice division, student of William Barbini)

Erik Yang (winner, junior division, student of Victoria Tognozzi)

Cello

Benjamin Jiang (winner, novice division, student of Susan Lamb Cook)

Patrick Song (winner, junior division, student of Richard Andaya)

Angelica Rojas (winner, senior division, student of Susan Lamb Cook)

All winners will be featured in a Winner's Showcase recital in November where they will receive certificates and cash awards. Exact recital date to be announced. They are also eligible to enter the ASTA State Solo competition that will take place in October of 2018 in northern California. Please check our website for up to date information at www.calasta.org

Sincerely,
